TO PETITION TAFT TO WITHDRAW.

Nation Wide Movement To Be Started To Get Him To Quit The Race.

Washington, July 8.—A nation-wide movement to petition President Taft to withdraw as the republican presidential candidate is being backed by a large number of republican office holders who feel they face defeat in November, unless the breach in the party can be healed.

These men include members of the state legislatures which will elect senators, state and county officeholders and other candidates. If the movement to petition Mr. Taft to withdraw succeeds in gaining any volume, it is said these same men in the interest of party harmony, may ask Col. Roosevelt also to withdraw as a prospective candidate for an independent nomination and permit a compromise selection of some man agreeable to both members of the party.

It is the desire of the promoters of the scheme that a decision shall be reached before Aug. 5, when the Roosevelt faction plans to hold a convention in Chicago.

Changed Date for Farmers' Union Meeting.

The Farmers Union Tobacco Poolers meeting will be held on the 2nd Saturday in August instead of on the 1st as elsewhere stated in this paper, the change being made on account of the date of the Primary Election.

G. B. Taylor, Chm'n.

Dunn Springs.

Home coming at Dunn Springs Sunday will long be remembered as a great day in many respects. Long before the time appointed for service to begin the church was filled with people, and still they continued to come.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the day's service was opened by song after which Bro. Robinson, the pastor, introduced Dr. T. A. Frazier, of Marion, who for more than an hour spoke in his candid yet pleasing way on the subject of "Preventive Medicine." Dr. Frazier's able speech was gratefully received by several hundred people, and although the day was sultry no one seemed to tire of the subject which was presented in such an interesting way.

After Dr. Frazier had finished, the regular preaching service began by song followed by prayer by E. T. Franklin.

At 11:30 Rev. Robinson delivered a splendid sermon on the "World's Hope." His discourse was logically arranged, and his delivery forcible. At the close of the sermon a collection of about $25.00 was taken for the Missionary work.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. B. McNeely.

At noon a sumptuous dinner was spread, and there was plenty to spare.

At 3 o'clock Rev. Mather, of Marion, preached from Exodus 15:27, and those who have had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Mather know that to listen to him is always a treat.

The singing was led by T. R. Yates. After an old fashion hand-shake, the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Mather, closing one of the most enjoyable days ever held at Dunn Springs but shall we have another day like it on July 13, 1913? Yes!

Unique Colored Marriage.

On the evening of July 6th at 9 o'clock our genial county clerk, Learner E. Guess was required to respond to the duties of his office and issue a marriage license for the colored parties, Mitchell Jackson and Miss Alma Shelby who waited mysteriously in the rear of the court house, in J. W. Wilson's automobile. After securing the necessary papers the high contracting parties sped away to the residence of Judge Blue, and stopped the car in the street long enough for an impressive ceremony which bound the two for "better or for worse", and under the rays of electric lights the car vanished from observers and the romance was consummated.

Lorimer Is Expelled from U. S. Senate by Large Majority.

Washington, July 13.—William Lorimer, of Ill., was expelled from the Senate, this afternoon by a vote of 55 to 28.

By that overwhelming verdict his colleagues found him guilty, of having been elected on May 24, 1903 by "corrupt methods and practices." Lorimer did not vote on his own case, but his aged colleague, senator Culom, turned against him after having formerly voted to keep him in the Senate.

With a smile on his face Lorimer instantly arose from his seat and with a swinging gait walked toward the Republican cloak room. As he reached the door, Senator Smoot grasped his hand and some friends from the house joined him.

Fire Sweeps Cave-in-Rock.

Shawneetown, Ill., July 16.—Practically the entire business section of Cave-in-Rock, fifteen miles below Shawneetown, on the Ohio River, was destroyed by fire. The fire is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The flames were first discovered in the Masonic building and spread to the next block, burning the Masonic building, Thornton's dry goods store, Hill & Banard's general store, a granary, Dr. Hill's residence and several smaller buildings. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Rev. Jas. F. Price in Logan.

Rev. James F. Price is holding a series of Country Church Institutes in Logan Presbytery for the development and encouragement of the country church. He has assisting him in this work W. O. Rodes, an eminent lawyer of Bowling Green, who discussed "The Development of our Young People" in a very forcible way; Charlie Rodgers, a merchant of Bowling Green, who discusses "Christian Giving" from a biblical standpoint; and Rev. Chas. Brevard, who is fine on "The Development of the Country Church."

They held an institute at Pleasant Hill church, near Rockfield, Saturday, July 13. Notwithstanding the very busy season there was a fine attendance. The people seemed to enjoy and appreciate the exercises of the day. They had dinner on the ground and it was one of the neatest and completest ever seen. They had country ham and fresh meats and chicken cooked in every style, almost every kind of pickle and salad that could be thought of, cakes the top note of which was angel's food and the lowest note was the devil's food, and the whole scale between filled with every other variety; and pies galore. They had ice cold sulphur water, plain water and ice cold lemonade. Then came the ice cream of every kind and sherbets. But let's stop right here. It makes us hungry to think about it.

On Sunday a similar Institute was held at Old Union church, twelve miles south of Bowling Green, where a good audience, splendid dinner and good time duplicated the previous day's work. On Monday a similar Institute was held at Trinity church, six miles south-west of Bowling Green, where the same splendid conditions obtained as in the two previous days. Mr. Price goes to Franklin, Ky., thence into Tennessee, where he will for several days engage in the same work.

BELOVED MATRON STRICKEN DOWN.

Mrs. H. V. Escott, Wife of Well Known Minister Stricken With Paralysis.

Mrs. Escott, wife of Rev. H. V. Escott, was stricken with paralysis at their home on West Salem street Tuesday morning as the family were at breakfast. The stroke was a slight one, still had it not been for the assistance of her husband and daughter, she would have fallen to the floor. Dr. Clement, who was hastily summoned, soon arrived and administered to her. She revived, but at noon suffered another attack and from that time has been considered very critically ill.

Mr. Escott and daughter, Mrs. Addison R. Smith, who was the guest of her parents decided it best to take her to her daughter's home in Louisville where their family physician, a trained nurse and many comforts not obtainable here, could be had for her benefit and where Mrs. Smith's new and elegant home and a full complement of servants were awaiting her return.

Arrangements were made accordingly and at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, she was carried on a cot to the station and placed aboard her son-in-law's private car which had been sent here for that purpose and to convey his own family home. On board the car beside Mr. Escott's son-in-law Vice President Smith of the L. & N. R. R., were their son, Paul Escott and grandson, Horace Smith and a trained nurse from St. Joseph's Infirmary, all of Louisville. Dr. I. H. Clement of this city accompanied them also.

The many friends of Rev. Escott are in sympathy with him, and hope for a speedy recovery of his estimable wife who has won the hearts of all with whom she has come in contact since she has resided here.

S. S. Entertainment.

Mrs. C. R. Newcom entertained her S. S. class and a few invited guests at her home Tuesday afternoon. The little folks played "Drop the Handkerchief" &c on the large lawn until Mrs. Newcom assisted by Mrs. Dodge spread refreshments which consisted of watermelon, ice cream and cake. Every thing was merry when at 6 o'clock Bro. Miller came in his carriage and Mrs. Orme in her auto and took the little folks home.

Those present were, Laura Butler, Katherine White of Helena, Ark., Virginia Miller, Ruth Miller, Margaret Orme, Lavene Guess, Roberta Moore, Bonnie Babb, Allen Babb Edwin Henry, Willie Newcom and George William Howerton.

In Land of White Nights.

(Answers.)

June is the month of the 'white nights' in the north. In Finland one can read a newspaper in the open air at midnight, and the sky is bright with a tender gentle radiance. There is no break between the sunset and dawn and the same rosy flush serves for both. Strictly speaking, Summer in Finland is one long day. The moment the first star glimmers in the south it is a sign that autumn is at hand. The long period of light exercises a wonderful effect upon vegetation and the leaves of trees grow to an enormous size. Up north the development of plant life is crowded into a few weeks but it is none the less perfect for that. Though few people realize it, it is a fact that in June London has only five and one half hours of darkness. Up at Aberdeen in clear nights, there is no blackness only a kind of twilight. Scottish gardeners, if they wished, could work in the open at midnight, except in the south of our sister country.

A Mustache Cup For Granny.

(Youngstown Telegram.)
On the occasion of his grandmother's birthday anniversary not long since a little West End boy proudly presented the old lady, a handsome mustache cup which he had purchased at a 5 and 10-cent store. "What an odd thing to buy for grandma!" said the boy's sister. "Did you know it was a mustache cup?" "No I didn't" echoed the boy, somewhat sheepishly. "I thought maybe the little shelf was to keep people's false teeth from falling into the cup."

As The Oyster Grows.

(Browning's Magazine.)

When young oysters first appear they are called "spat" and are no larger than a pinhead. At the age of one year they are known as "brood" and a bushel measure will hold about 6,400 of them.

When they come to three years old they are designated as "ware" and the 6,400 of them will then fill three one bushel measures. They are not ready for market until they are four years old, and then they have arrived to a dignity of proportions, that if the bushel of broods has not lost any of its members it will demand nearly seven of such measures to carry them to the stalls.

MARION, KY.The Dangers of a Great City.

(Popular Magazine.)

A young man who had been born and reared in the backwoods went to Chicago and made a lot of money. Then he returned to his native village and asked his father to take a trip to the windy city. The old man, however, was not enthusiastic over the proposition. He had heard of the fires, automobile accidents and other catastrophes in big cities. Finally after much argument and persuasion on the part of his son, the father reluctantly agreed to undertake the journey. At the little country station he was panic-stricken and tried to get permission to go back home. Once on the train his nerve began to revive, and all went well until the train dashed into a tunnel as black as night. When this happened the old man grabbed his umbrella, hit his son a whack on the head and cried out: "I knew something would happen. I've gone blind."

The Old Pair Tree of Maine.

(Lewiston Journal.)

The high wind of July 13, destroyed the famous landmark near the Fifth Main building, Peak's Island, known as the "Pair Tree." This tree standing isolated on a barren point on the shore, dates back 150 years and has beyond the memory of any living man been an object of great interest to all islanders and visitors.

Old settlers relate that in 1869 there was a second limb growing out of the other side of the sole branch which still survived prior to July 13, but in that year it was blown away to sea. For forty-three years the old oak has had but this one limb which it maintained in a high degree of vigor—truly a green old age.

Many generations of lovers have sat under the pair tree (so named because of the pairing instinct of lovers in general) and have sworn undying constancy by those two symbols of the inconstant—the moon and the tide. The oldest islanders have played under its shade as children. Mariners have sighted it as a landmark. Millions of people have known and loved it.

ENDORSES JNO. HENDRICK

Murray Ledger, Influential Paper, Makes Strong Statement.

In announcing that it would support John K. Hendrick for congress, the Murray Ledger, one of the oldest and most influential newspapers in Western Kentucky prints the following:

"Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, a pronounced favorite in Calloway county, has been here this week making speeches in the interest of his candidacy for congress, and hundreds of Calloway voters have heard the brilliant and brainy First district favorite discuss the issues of the day. Mr. Hendrick makes a formal announcement for the office through the columns of The Ledger and in presenting his name to the voters of this county The Ledger realizes its inability to say anything that will add to his popularity or give expression to his splendid ability, but we do not hesitate to say that in John K. Hendrick the First district has one of the most capable men for the office within the entire state. It is realized upon every hand that the next session of congress will be one of great importance to the American people and one in which brain and talent and previous experience will be of necessity to accomplish that for which the common people are now striving.

The first vote the writer ever cast in Kentucky was cast for John K. Hendrick, and if the Lord's will in the next one he casts will be for the same splendid, capable man to represent this district in congress. In making this announcement it is not the purpose of The Ledger to make an aggressive fight of any character against any other aspirant for the place sought by Col. Hendrick but because we are convinced that he is capable in every way to represent the district in a manner acceptable to the people and with credit to himself. It is acknowledged by every one conversant with the facts that Col. Hendrick is better qualified in every respect to represent the district than any other aspirant, and this is said without intention of discredit to the other gentleman seeking the place. It is not a question of voting "to beat the other fellow," but a question of voting for a man who is recognized as being capable to fill the place as it should be filled. We have heard a number of expressions from different voters to the effect that they expected to vote for Mr. So and So in order to defeat Mr. So and So. The Ledger would appeal to the voters of Calloway county to vote not to defeat any man but to elect a man who is recognized as capable of ability to fill the office in an acceptable manner. Mr. Hendrick has many hundreds of friends in Calloway county who will be glad to know that his chances for success are very flattering, and in fact with a creditable vote in Calloway county can win the election and be sent to Washington to again wage the battle of the people.

Mr. Hendrick has no clerk or gang here in Murray to champion his cause, but rather chooses to go out into the country and appeal to the people, face to face, for their suffrage and ask them to vote for him in this election. This is a fact, and to their discredit, that other men asking for the same office have come to Murray and organized a little coterie of political pot hunters to deliver the vote of Calloway to them, but if we mistake not this is going to fail of its purpose. The time passed several years ago when the people of Calloway delivered themselves, body and soul, to any man or set of men, that their suffrage might be traded like pigs in a poke. The time of Mark Hanna has passed, and in Calloway county the voters out in the county have the same right of suffrage as that exercised by any other man and by no means they are going to take advantage of this right as their vote in this contest as they are convinced is right and proper.

Bristol, Tenn., July 13.—Hearing the cries of their little child, who had been tucked away in bed at the family home in Lee county, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Livasey were astounded to find their baby had been put to bed with a copperhead snake.

NATIONWIDE MOVEMENT

Followers of Roosevelt Issue Formal Call.

Convention to be Held in Chicago August 5th.

TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT

Forty States Represented by Those Signing.

New York, July 7.—A call to the people of the United States, who are in sympathy with the "National Progressive Movement," to send delegates to a national convention to open in Chicago, August 5th, was given out this afternoon by United States Senator Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana, members of the committee chosen at a meeting held in Chicago, and also includes signatures of Roosevelt followers in forty states.

"The territories have no place in a national convention and will not be considered," declared Senator Dixon, in commenting upon the signatures. "As for the missing eight states, the most of them probably will send delegates, although they have not taken part in the call.

"Maine, for instance, postponed any definite action because there is now a strong fight on in the primaries, with the sympathy running in favor of the progressive movement. Delaware, North Carolina, Arkansas and Nevada probably will take part in the convention. Mississippi and South Carolina may be unrepresented.

"The call lays down no rules as to the methods of choosing delegates, since each state will be expected to select its delegates by its own paraphernalia. The representation will be cut to just one-half that of the previous conventions. This was considered advisable since this convention is to be notably a deliberative body and certainly will be composed of a class of men altogether different from those who usually attend conventions.

"In all probability the convention will adopt the name 'National Progressive' for the new party, but I cannot say definitely what will be done. Thus far no issues have been stated authoritatively and, of course, the platform itself will have to be decided upon by the delegates.

Text of Call.

The text of the call is:

"To the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences, who through repeated betrayals, realizes that today the power of the crooked political bosses and of the privileged class behind them is so strong in the two old party organizations that no helpful movement in the real interests of our country can come of either.

"Who believe that the time has come for a national progressive movement—a nation-wide movement—on nonsectional lines, so that the people may be served in sincerity and truth by an organization unfettered by obligation to conflicting interests.

"We believe in the right and capacity of the people to rule themselves and effectively to control all the agencies of their government, and who hold that only through social and industrial justice, thus secured, can honest property find permanent protection.

Business and Legislation.

"We believe that only through the movement proposed can we obtain in the nation and the several states the legislation demanded by the modern industrial evolution; legislation which shall favor honest business and yet control the great agencies of modern business so as to insure their being in the interest of the whole people; legislation which shall promote prosperity and at the same time secure the better and more equitable diffusion of prosperity; legislation which shall promote the

On the evening of the 12th, in honor of Miss Geneva Daniel's fourteenth birthday a "surprise party" was given her by her mother, Mrs. J. Watt Lamb, at the home of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Henrietta Cameron. Quite a number of young friends of Miss Geneva were present to enjoy the occasion, and a nice selection of gifts presented. The lawn was attractively lighted with candles and ices were served. After several merry games the young people went home especially pleased with their fair young hostess and wishing her many happy birthdays in coming years.

To The Women of Crittenden County.

Marion, Ky., July 16, 1912.

On June 12th, 1912 the law granting school suffrage to women went into effect. Women who are twenty one years of age and able to read and write will be eligible to vote in the coming trustees' election, Aug 3rd, also such women will be eligible to hold office as school trustees or become members of school boards.

There have just been sent out blanks for holding elections at the following places:

Dean, Hebron, Fords Ferry,
Glendale, Tolu, Barnett, Sullen-
ger, Colon, Sheridan, Applegate, Baker, Hoods Creek, Oakland, Heath, Moore, Dempsey, New
Salem, Childress, Grimes, White Hall, Jackson, Crayne, Oak Grove, Piney Fork, Copperas
Springs, Olive Branch, Shady
Grove, Odessa, Lamb, Enon,
Red Top and Belmont.

Up until the last three years
the office of trustee has been a place of worry, trouble, almost a place of dishonor—really a scourge—but since the passage of 1908 law making the county a unit for school work, and making it possible to pay the trustee for some of the actual work he was compelled to do, and bringing him into direct co-operation with the other trustees of the county, placing him where he can become a director of the educational affairs of the entire county by becoming a member of the County Board of Education; bringing him into direct communication with all the teachers of the county, in fact with all the educators of the State his office is being looked upon as an office of trust, honor and of very great importance.

The Educational World has it,
"As is the teacher, so is the school," but one in the place of County Superintendent can see and apply a part of this adage to the trustee. A teacher may strive to her very uttermost for two, three or four months of the school to keep up an interest, attendance, school improvement &c and if the trustee with the patrons remain dormant she will become discouraged and sit the remainder of her time out just to draw her salary. I can always tell a school where there is an indifferent trustee.

There is a great deal more that I am going to say right along here some time, but right now I want to insist on the patrons, citizens and all legal voters to meet at the school buildings in the above named districts
at one o'clock on Saturday, Aug.
3rd, 1912, and select one of the (prettiest) most sensible, energetic, enthusiastic and progressive members of their voting population and elect that member trustee of that school.

Singularly enough this school election comes on the same day that the Democratic primary election to nominate a congressman is held, and I suggest that while the Democratic voters go to the primary and vote for John K.
Hendrix, that you women, Democrats and Republicans, collect all the republican men and elect a trustee. Yours very truly,

E. JEFFREY TRAVIS,
Superintendent.

J. B. M.

Goes To Salem, Frances, Koon And Dycusburg—Does Good Business.

Salem is one of the oldest towns in western Kentucky. The following is some of the business places:—Salem Bank, is doing a good business, J. L. Elder is the cashier and a more courteous gentleman would be hard to find than J. L. Elder.

R. A. Barnett and F. M. Story are the blacksmiths, and they are doing a good business in their line.

G. H. Rappolee & Son are dealers in general merchandise; and J. A. Farris, another one of Salem's good citizens, is dividing the trade with them, also McDaniel & Co.

H. D. Tutt & Son are owners of the Salem Roller Mills and are prepared to take care of the new crop of wheat. Give them a trial and you will be convinced that they make first class flour. They use both burr and roller process.

The drug store is run by Norburn Farris, and is a No. 1.

Salem has four doctors:—Drs. Roy Waddell, Vernon Matlock, J. V. Haynes and J. L. Hayden—all are well up in their profession and are ready to go at any call day or night. Dr. J. V. Hayden is one of the State's best known and most successful physicians and surgeons.

J. E. Threlkeld is the mail carrier from Marion to Salem. C. H. Bush is the insurance man. Fate Alley is the stock dealer. Mr. Walker is the postmaster, and is ready to give any information you desire concerning your mail.

There are half a dozen or more groceries and a good hardware firm Moore & Carter.

Salem is situated in a rich beautiful valley surrounded by a kind hospital people. On our return we called and sit an hour with L. L. Price, of Levas. Mr. Price is in very delicate health, but he hopes to be out soon.

On Monday we passed through Frances, we were there only a few minutes but did some business with the merchants S. H. Mathews and M. C. Pogue. They are doing a good business, dealing out goods to the surrounding country.

Koon, this is the name of a postoffice just over in Lyon Co., W. E. Hobson is the merchant here. He carries a splendid stock of general merchandise and the people say he sells goods at a low margin and every customer goes out well pleased with their deal with Mr. Hobson.

Yes, we were in Dycusburg. Everybody knows where Dycusburg is, it is situated on the beautiful Cumberland river in Crittenden county and is quite a business "burg" made up of good clever citizens, but this little village has been in hard luck, the latest calamity is the loss of their fine flour mill, but we hope these misfortunes will again blossom like the rose of Sharon.

Thanks to one and all for your many favors.
